

ORTHODOX PARISH AMERSFOORT

Church of Saint Cornelius the Centurion

THE ORIGINAL CHURCH FOR OLD AND NEW DUTCHMEN

OUR MISSION

The Orthodox Parish Amersfoort is a Dutch parish.

Since 1981 she focusses on making the original Church accessible for Dutchmen.

To point old and new citizens towards The Church.

Offering natives, refugees, asylum seekers, displaced persons, spouses, seasonal worker, grandchildren and seeker a place to become Dutch Orthodox.

Show Protestants, Roman-Catholics, Evangelicals, Muslims, Hindu, unbelievers and atheists The Way .

Holy Services, catechesis, workgroups, feasts, pastoral care, language courses, social training, summer camps for the children.

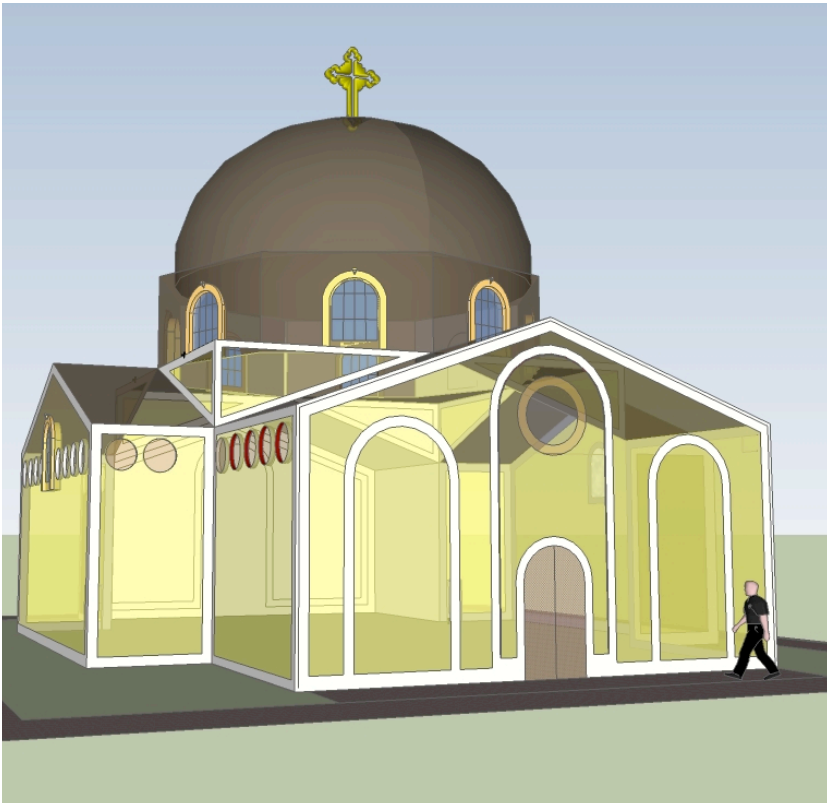

28 years Orthodox Mission
12 Different locations
Never a church of her own.
That has to change.

It is time for a proper church building.

Orthodox Holland ...
Who would have though that

BELIEVING IN A NEW HOME

The Orthodox Parish Amersfoort was founded with the aim of making the Original Church accessible for Dutchmen. And it works.

They came and found a new ecclesiastical home. And they keep coming.

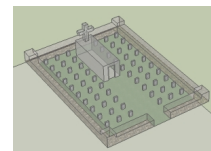

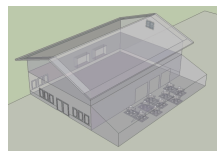

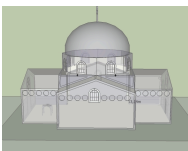

Unexpectedly a second group knocks at the doors of the Church.

Orthodox Christians who, forced by persecutions, civil war, religious hatred, discrimination, poverty, war and political oppression had to flee their homes.

In The netherlands they hope to find and make a new home. A home to live and freely believe.

So met old and new Dutchmen.

CHURCH

To an Orthodox Parish the church building is vital.
There, in the Holy Services, she becomes The Church.
